

6. Your University as a body has a policy on pay scale equity including a commitment to measurement and elimination of gender pay gaps

Every year, the employees need to report their duties, according to their job commitment. The administrative and the committees will evaluate their promotion with their reports and the students' evaluation in the same criteria. The results were approved by the university president.

