

7. Your University as a body measures/track pay scale gender equity

The university always measures/track pay scale gender equity by using the same criteria. The Financial department and Personnel Administration department deals with this. The gender is not influential in the payment here. Therefore, the payment is fair for everyone.

