

1.3.5 Buriram Rajabhat University as a body have schemes to support poor students from low or lower-middle income countries (e.g. offering free education, grants)

Buriram Rajabhat University has conducted a training program on Thai language teaching management for 21 scholarship students from Cambodia who are pursuing their studies at universities in Thailand. Additionally, five scholarship students from Cambodia studying at Buriram Rajabhat University also participated in this teaching management program.